0. SUMMARY

This Code of Conduct applies to all hosts, guests, production team members, and affiliates associated with The Sideline Podcast - including but not limited to guests on the platform. This policy governs conduct across all Podcast-related activities, including but not limited to recording sessions, promotional activities, interactions on affiliated digital platforms, and official Podcast-related events.

1. ANTI-DISCRIMINATION AND HARASSMENT POLICY

The Sideline Podcast is committed to fostering an inclusive and respectful environment while upholding the core values and principles of the Chantilly Youth Association and the Youth Sports community at large. We strictly prohibit discrimination, harassment, or marginalization of any kind.

Protected Characteristics

The Podcast, in its operations, guest selection, and content moderation, does not and shall not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion (creed), gender, gender expression, age, national origin (ancestry), disability, marital status, sexual orientation, or military status.

Zero Tolerance for Harassment

We maintain a zero-tolerance policy for harassment. This includes, but is not limited to, derogatory comments, slurs, intimidation, or hostile conduct directed at any individual or group during the recording, production, or promotion of the Podcast.

2. ENFORCEMENT AND COMPLIANCE

All individuals representing or appearing on The Sideline Podcast are expected to adhere to this policy. The Podcast, at its sole discretion, retains the final authority to interpret this policy and determine what constitutes a violation. The Podcast reserves the right to terminate the participation of any guest, host, or affiliate who violates this Code of Conduct. Furthermore, the Podcast explicitly reserves the right to edit, remove, or decline to publish any content that it determines breaches these standards.
